

A Celebration of Art

Silent Auction to Benefit Southwest Harbor Public Library

SOUTHWEST HARBOR – All are invited to the artist reception of the Southwest Harbor Public Library's annual art auction on Sunday evening, July 30, 5:30 – 7:00. The evening will include mingling with the the artists, nibbling on hors d'oeuvres, and listening to live music.

The auction benefits both the Library and the artists; the Library offers to share the proceeds with the artists 50/50 and many artists choose to donate the entire proceeds. Fully donated pieces are indicated as such on the bid sheets. Over 50 artists are featured and artwork is now available and on display. Art may be purchased immediately at the 'Buy It Now' price or silent bids may be placed on the artwork. Even if you are not interested in purchasing art, this is a beautiful, varied show and well worth the trip to the Library to see it. The auction will continue through August 30th. For more information, call the Library at 244-7065.
